- Discipline - Temecula Valley Valet may take disciplinary action, up to and including termination, against any employee for failing, in the employer's sole discretion, to adhere to certain standards of behavior. Ignorance of work rules is not an acceptable excuse for a violation of the rules of conduct, it is each employee's responsibility to learn and abide by these rules. Although employment may be terminated at-will by either the employee or Temecula Valley Valet at any time, without following any formal system of discipline or warning, Temecula Valley Valet may exercise discretion to utilize forms of discipline that are less severe than termination. Disciplinary action can take any one of the following forms:

- Verbal warning;
- Written warning;
- Suspension; and
- Dismissal.

- This statement of prohibited conduct does not alter or limit the policy of at-will employment. Either the employee or Temecula Valley Valet may terminate the employment relationship at any time for any reason, with or without cause, and with or without notice. Only the President/Owner of Temecula Valley Valet or his or her authorized representative has the authority to enter into an employment agreement that alters the at-will employment relationship, and any such agreement must be in writing and signed by the President/Owner of Temecula Valley Valet or his or her authorized representative.
